Clarification on Fake Notice Circulating Online

It has come to our attention that a fake statement is being circulated on social media using the name and logo of Labuan FSA and Labuan IBFC, claiming to invite individuals to join a WhatsApp group for sharing market insights or trading-related matters.

Labuan FSA wishes to clarify that we have not issued any such communication or sent any private messages through our Facebook page, nor is it authorised by us. We strongly advise the public to:

- Ignore the message and refrain from responding; and
- Do not click on any links or share your personal information.

The public is advised to always refer to Labuan FSA's official social media channels and official website for accurate information and legitimate announcements
