Project Background

1. Labuan FSA is the statutory body responsible for developing and administering the Labuan International Business and Financial Centre (Labuan IBFC). The key objectives of Labuan FSA are to:
  - a) Promote and develop Labuan as an international centre for business and financial services;
  - b) Develop national objectives, policies and priorities for the orderly development and administration of international business and financial services in Labuan; and
  - c) Act as the central regulatory, supervisory and enforcement authority of the international business and financial services industry in Labuan.
2. Labuan FSA intends to appoint a qualified vendor to conduct comprehensive training on a newly launched Behavioural Competencies Model and Framework for its staff. The vendor will work closely with Group Human Capital in designing, developing and delivering a training program for Heads, Managers, Executives, and Non-Executives that aims to equip them with a clear understanding and application of the new behavioural competencies as well as effectively demonstrate the desired behaviours in their daily work. Overall, the program aims to see, embed, and strengthen the application of these competencies within Labuan FSA, ultimately driving individual and organisational effectiveness.
3. The primary objectives of this initiative are as follows:
  - i. Increase awareness and understanding: Equip staff with a thorough understanding of the new behavioural competencies model and framework, its key components, and its value proposition for individual and Labuan FSA success.

- ii. Develop competency skills: Provide staff with practical tools and techniques to effectively apply the targeted competencies in their daily work interactions and leadership roles.
  - iii. Drive behaviour change: Encourage and support the adoption of the desired behaviours into staff work practices, fostering a culture of high performance and accountability.
  - iv. Ensure smooth implementation: Facilitate the seamless integration of the new competencies model within the Labuan FSA environment, addressing any potential challenges or resistance.
  - v. Solidify leadership commitment: Foster an environment where Head Units and Section Managers actively champion the program, serve as role models, and guide their teams towards embracing the new competencies.
4. The training will be held in Labuan with the target participants as follows:

Job Levels	No of Staff	Programme	Remarks
Head	21	Training	1 Session
Manager	25		1 Session
Executive	71		3 Sessions
Non-Executive	9		1 Session
Total	126

Scope of Services

1. The scope of the programme shall require customization, and the vendor is expected:
  - i. To conduct a needs assessment to understand the current state of awareness and competency levels among target participants and design a program based on the identified needs and the specific requirements of each job level.
  - ii. Training Sessions:
    - Modular training sessions: Design and deliver interactive training sessions, catering to the specific needs and job levels of each participant group, covering all key competencies outlined in the new model and framework.
    - Engaging training methodologies: utilise a variety of interactive training methods, such as workshops, simulations, case studies, group discussions, role-playing exercises and individual reflection activities, to ensure active participation and engagement.

- Leadership development workshops: Dedicate workshops for Head Units and Section Managers, focusing on empowering them to effectively model and champion the new competencies within their teams, providing guidance and support for successful implementation.
  - Individual action plan creation: Facilitate the creation of personalised action plans for each participant, outlining specific steps they will take to apply the learned competencies in their work environment.
- iii. Evaluation and Reporting
- Conduct a post-training evaluation to assess the effectiveness of the program and identify areas for improvement. Provide a comprehensive report summarising the findings and recommendations.
2. The interested vendor must be able to submit a proposal detailing the proposed syllabus of the training session, including break time, activities and question-and-answer sessions as well as additional support to Labuan FSA post-training session i.e. training effectiveness assessment, etc.
3. The interested service provider may refer to Attachment H for the list and definition of competencies that related to the above initiatives. Labuan FSA shall provide the details of the Behavioural Competencies Model and Framework, including descriptor and sample behaviours for respective target levels for each job level to the successful training provider once the Labuan FSA has issued the appointment letter.

Vendors Whistleblowing Guidelines

- 1) Labuan Financial Services Authority (Labuan FSA) is opposed to all forms of fraud, corruption, and malpractice, whether arising from within or outside Labuan FSA or from vendors. If the vendors have any concerns about suspected malpractice, Labuan FSA encourages them to raise the issue. Labuan FSA will take your concerns seriously and wish to encourage you to report any suspected fraud or corruption.
- 2) Submission of concern:
  - (i) Any report about suspected or potential malpractice can be submitted to:

Director General Labuan Financial Services Authority Level 17, Main Office Tower Financial Park Complex Jalan Merdeka 87000, Labuan F.T. (Tel: 03-8873 2000 / Fax: 03-8873 2208)  Email: dg_wb@labuanfsa.gov.my

- (ii) For submitted by letter, place letter in a sealed envelope with the words "Strictly Confidential. To be opened by Addressee only [name and address of the DOJ]" on the top left hand corner of the envelope.
- 3) Confidentiality:
  - (i) Labuan FSA will treat all reports in a confidential and sensitive manner. The identity of the whistleblower is required when making a report, to better place an investigation into the report. This is to respect the authority of the Labuan FSA and integrity of its employees.
  - (ii) However, Labuan FSA will respect and protect the confidentiality of the whistleblower and hereby gives assurance that it will not reveal the identity of the whistleblower to any third party not involved in the investigation or prosecution of the matter. The whistleblower making the report will retain anonymity to all other employees and public unless he/she agrees otherwise.

The assurance of confidentiality can only be completely effective if the whistleblower likewise maintains confidentiality.

- (iii) Anonymous concerns will be much more difficult for Labuan FSA to look into the matter or protect your position. Investigations into anonymous allegations are likely to be limited by the sufficiency of the information provided. Anonymous referrals will be followed up at the discretion of the Labuan FSA. In exercising that discretion, the factors that will be taken into account will include:
    - The seriousness of the matters raised.
    - The sufficiency and detail of information provided.
    - The credibility of the concern; and
    - The likelihood of confirming the allegation and obtaining further evidence from attributable sources.
- 4) Labuan FSA's Commitment:
- (i) Upon notification, Labuan FSA will look into it to assess and take action.
  - (ii) You will be notified who is handling the matter, how you can contact them, and whether further assistance may be needed.
  - (iii) Where relevant, the whistleblower may be requested to submit evidence and documents. Any meeting arranged will be conducted discreetly and, if necessary, off-site or out of Labuan FSA's premises.
